Untied from minds
Belong to thyself
Not a pet or a puppet
Not meant to please

In life we have goals
And dreams
May all of the good ones
Be achieved ...
Not converted
Or denounced
But carefully sought out
With love

Untied from the ties that bind
Free from the timetables of the (collective) mind

I belong to myself
I ask no permission!

With love, patience and guidance
With care, insight and an open mind
With integrity, sincerity
With faith in creation
United rise above human ties
While bringing joy into each other's lives
