I. Allergic to Mainstream

When the same apple juice is shoved in my face

Day after day, hour by hour

I'm ready to vomit it out

An allergy appears

I know you believe you're most important and so do multiple others

But I'm allergic now, whereas before I loved you

Maybe they were false apple buyers after all

Now, as they kneel on that cold marble floor, kissing the ground where apples fall ...

This apple pie is rotten now

Worms can enjoy it ... I'm into pears

II. Systemic Censorship

Telling us what's right

In a county with the 1st Amendment

When to speak

What to say

Which words to use

Which ones we can't

Enough of that BullSh*t

No Censorship Shall Exist

In A Free Nation

Whatever, with respect

Free the mind-trap of

#SystemicCensorship
