To Whom It May Concern;

Mikhail Tank has co-hosted a Psychology and Spirituality based radio show called "Feel, Think, Grow" since May 2014 at KPFK.

Mikhail is a professional, determined, and highly talented individual with the ability to bring people together; and has the skills to both create and promote powerful and inspiring content.

The work Mikhail has done at KPFK via the 'Feel, Think and Grow Show' has brought new listenership to the station and has provided a new depth to certain subjects, for which we are grateful here at the station.

I recommend Mikhail Tank for any position in broadcast, communications and multi-media work; and I know that he will bring great benefit to your venture.

Sincerely,
